Curran Moher Weis Promotes Nicole Grejda, Esq., to Partner

Grejda Makes the First Female Partner for the Northern Virginia Family Law Firm

FAIRFAX, VA., Jan. 5, 2021 – Curran Moher Weis, P.C., a family law firm with offices in Fairfax and Alexandria, Va., today announced the promotion of Nicole Grejda, Esq., to partner.

Since joining the firm in 2017, Grejda has successfully represented clients in multiple complex, high net-worth divorce cases, completed training as a professional mediator, and obtained a certification in collaborative law. Recognized as a “Rising Star” by Super Lawyers each year since 2017, she has become known as a trusted advisor and advocate to clients in matters of divorce, child custody and visitation, spousal and child support, and other post-divorce modification and enforcement issues. Grejda is the first female partner for Curran Moher Weis, which was founded in 2012 and now has 10 dedicated family law attorneys on staff.

“Ms. Grejda is a highly effective attorney,” said Grant Moher, Esq., managing partner and co-founder at Curran Moher Weis. “She is sharp and focused, both in court and at the negotiating table. She also cares deeply for her clients, and it shows in her work. We are proud to add her as a partner to our firm.”

Prior to Curran Moher Weis, Grejda was a practicing attorney for several years at a family law firm in Vienna, Va. She is an active member of the Fairfax Bar Association and the Collaborative Professionals of Northern Virginia. Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, she was also engaged in multiple local volunteer efforts, including supporting the Fairfax Law Foundation’s Annual Heroes v. Villains Run for Justice 5K and co-chairing the 2019 Color of Justice Program, which aims to support middle- and high-school students from diverse backgrounds who are interested in legal or judicial careers.

Grejda earned her B.A. from Pennsylvania State University and her J.D. from the George Mason University School of Law.
